

UMBC 2016

How to Write a Successful Personal Statement; The 5 Ws and 1H

Presented by

Patti Ordóñez, PhD

With slides borrowed from Woodrow Winchester, PhD, Ann Q. Gates, PhD and

Graduate Research Fellowship Operations Center

Workshop Outcomes

- What is a personal statement and...
- Why do you need it?
- Who does this apply to?
- When do you start?
- How do you start?
- Where do you go from here?

The Personal Statement

- What is it and Why do you need it?

Definition

- A personal statement is about who you are, what has influenced your career path, your professional interests, and your plans.
- Essential points
 - What makes you unique?
 - Why you are interested in particular opportunity?
 - Why you are interested in the organization to which you are applying?

Who?

- Who? It's about YOU!!!
- Your story....

When Do You Start?

NOW!!!

How do you start?

- Decide what and where are applying to
 - Graduate school
 - Fellowship
 - Scholarship
 - Internship
 - Job
- Find out specific review criteria for the application...

Example Criteria

- Content
 - Alignment of applicant's goals with opportunity
 - Distinguishing characteristics of applicant
 - Concrete experiences/examples that support skills and capabilities
 - Compelling reason why the applicant is seeking the opportunity
 - All required elements of the application addressed
- Mechanics
 - Clarity
 - Organization
 - Grammar
 - Appropriateness of detail

Constructing a Successful Application

Relevant Background, Research and Personal Statement (limit: 3 Pages)

- Describe personal, professional or educational experiences that have contributed to your preparation and desire to pursue graduate study
- Describe your leadership potential, and how you see yourself now or in the future contributing to research, education, and innovations in science and engineering
- Discuss your career aspirations and some goals you hope to achieve

More info: www.nsf.gov/grfp or www.nsfgrfp.org

Apply at: www.fastlane.nsf.gov/grfp/

Find a partner to help you develop YOUR STORY

Relevant Background, Research, and Personal Statement (3 Pages)

- Fascination with research area
- Examples of leadership and unique characteristics brought to chosen field
- Personal experiences and individual strengths
- How receiving the award contributes to career goals
- Typically focuses on Broader Impacts criteria

5 minute pair discussion

National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship Program

More Info: www.nsf.gov/grfp or www.nsfgrfp.org

Apply at: www.fastlane.nsf.gov/grfp/

Where do we go from here?

- Before you write,
 - Decide what key points you really want to get across
 - What relevant unique personal experiences do you have?
 - Why is this opportunity for you?
 - How is the opportunity important to your overall goals?
 - Create a checklist of all required elements of the application

Where do we go from here?

- WRITE, WRITE, WRITE
- Review, review, review
- REWRITE, REWRITE, REWRITE

- Find advisors, mentors, family members, friends, anyone you trust to give you good feedback on your writing.

Reflection

- With what you know now, how are you better prepared to create a successful personal statement?
- With what you know now, how are you better prepared to fund your graduate education?

