Dr. Seales will be speaking about the Vis Center at the University of Kentucky, where he is the Director and a Researcher. The VisCenter will be accepting applications for Computer Science students to work there in Summer 2010 - Dr. Seales will outline the kinds of projects that make this an exciting opportunity for your career.

Dr. Mary Vore will speak about the summer research program in Toxicology at the University of Kentucky. The Graduate Center for Toxicology, where Dr. Vore is Director, will be accepting applications from students who are interested in laboratory research at UK in the Summer of 2010.